

MATTRESSES MORE LAWS TO ENFORCE

When the business of J. Hopp & Co., furniture dealers and upholsterers, was established about twenty-seven years ago one of the first articles delivered by the concern was a mattress. The firm is still making mattresses and during the past few weeks has moved this department of its business into clean, airy and fireproof work-rooms—and old employees are still making the mattresses. Two of our mattress makers have been making mattresses for us for over twenty years with the result that their experience in making ones that will last has become very valuable.

We make two grades of hair mattresses, two kinds of floss mattresses, moss, excelsior, straw, and have them in stock and can make them so that they will fit any bed.

Sometime ago we imported the Patent Ostermoor Elastic Felt Mattress. Over half of the entire shipment has been sold and all who have purchased them are well satisfied.

Look over your mattresses. If you need new ones we will be pleased to figure with you.

Governor Calis Sheriff's Attention to Three Sections.

The following letter, in large measure self-explanatory but showing the continued determination on the part of the executive to enforce the laws as they stand, was written by Governor Carter to the High Sheriff yesterday:

November 22, 1904.
William Henry, Esq., High Sheriff,
Territory of Hawaii.

Dear Sir: I beg to call to your attention Act 84 of the Session Laws of 1903, in relation to awnings and balconies, which I am told is not enforced. I am also informed that there is a law prohibiting any one driving over a bridge of more than ten feet span faster than a walk, and providing a fine. I believe you had better take this up with the Sheriffs of the different Islands, and see that both of these matters are enforced.

May I also call your attention to Act 72 of the Session Laws of 1903, providing a penalty for those who rent buildings for immoral purposes. This is an exceedingly strong law, and it might be well to suggest that the newspapers call attention to these laws.

Very sincerely yours,
GEORGE R. CARTER,
Governor.

The law in relation to awnings provides that those built above sidewalks shall not be more than six feet wide, that they shall be supported upon iron frameworks fastened to the buildings, and that they shall be at a height of not less than eleven feet.

The third law to which attention is called by the Governor, Act 72 of the Session Laws of 1903, is a drastic measure aimed at immorality of all sorts. The particular section noted, that directed against those who rent buildings for evil purpose, provides a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1000 for its violation. This is Section Two of the Act. Section Four makes it mandatory upon the owner of premises so rented to notify the tenant to cease immoral practices there, and if this notice is unheeded, then it is mandatory upon the property owner to enter upon possession of his own and eject the objectionable tenant.

AT THE CHURCH FAIR.

(Hatter's Soliloquy.)

"Although I enter not,
Yet round about the spot
Ofttimes I hover;
And near the sacred gate:
With longing eyes I wait,
Expectant of her." THACKERY.

Altho' I enter not,
Yet round about the spot
I sneak and watch 'em;
I see the dames walk in,
Sedate, and free from sin,
And long to catch 'em.

But Henry's "common sense"
Will make me wander hence
With ne'er a victim;
(I don't know if 'tis his
Own notion of the "biz,"
Or Carter's dictum.

Here "common (?) sense" doth rule,
I'm in a different school
Than in She-Ca-Go;
Our Sheriff Pure-E-Tin,
Runs in for selling gin,
Each damned he-Dago.

And Portuguese and Japs
I catch a-playing craps,
And quickly grab 'em;
And Chinese at che fa
Can't even holler "ma!"
Before I nab 'em.

I hear the curfew bell
And straight the kiddies yell;
"There's Hatter comin'!"
I'm SOME down here you see,
A sleuth's a rarity—
I keep things hummin'.

But when our Christian dames
Run wheel of fortune games
And grab bag swindles,
And "zwei beer" sell to make
A stake for God's sweet sake,
My "Pink" faith dwindles.

The difference is clear
'Twixt Brown and Henry here—
ONE's in the lurch;
The other winks an eye
At gambling on the sly
"IF FOR THE CHURCH!"
HILARY NEAL WESTON.

An Enjoyable Outing.

The most attractive day's outing is that afforded by the excursion down the railroad line. The HALEIWA LIMITED, a first-class train, leaves Honolulu every Sunday morning at 8:22 o'clock making the run in two hours, the rate for round trip being only $2.00. From 10:22 a. m. until 3:10 p. m. is spent at the beautiful HOTEL HALEIWA, with fresh and salt water bathing, tennis, golf drives and walks, shooting or fishing and you are back in town at 10:10 o'clock in the evening.

"My son is fond of college sports," said Mr. Essayman. "I guess you're right," agreed Roundson; "my son said that your son was out all Saturday night with a bunch of them."—Cleveland Leader.

GOOD FOOTBALL FOR TOMORROW

All the minor details, which are to insure the comfort of the spectators, have been arranged. There will be two rows of chairs along the sidelines and everything to give the spectator a good chance to witness the game has been attended to. The new baseball park is in splendid condition, smooth, compact and yet grassy enough to make an ideal battle ground for both the Mallees and Punahou to measure sinews, brawn and brains.

Coach Benson has worked with skill and tireless energy to round his men into championship form. There is not a man on the Malle team who has a soft spot on his body. There is an abundance of sunshine for the Malle chances and the Punahou boys will find themselves opposed by an aggressive, confident and determined team backed by many crackjack rooters.

Punahou has shown good form throughout the season and one of the strongest combinations the "Blue and Gold" have ever put in the field will appear against the Malle boys. There have been some wild tales about a weak team at Punahou. This team is in fine condition and the college eleven will have eleven well-trained athletes in their line-up. Punahou has always had a slight advantage on the football field. The players to represent the Malle team will be chosen from the following men: Allen, Akina, Buckle, Chilton, Coulter, Colburn, R. Clark, B. Clark, Desha, Ellis, Freeth, Hellbron, Jarrett, King, Kahilikolo, Miles, Modlin, Miller, Nahinea, Plunkett, Prestige, Robertson, Spencer, Vanhelzen, Wright and Wilson.

The Punahou will choose their men from the following: L. Robinson, L. Judd, A. Judd, N. Crabbe, Hatch, Johnson, Lyon, G. Judd, Marcellino, Spilvalo, S. Johnson and De Hart.

Indications are that there will be a record breaking crowd. Seats are on sale at Woods and Sheldon's. The reserved seats are 50c. If seats are purchased at the grounds they will be 60c.

THERE MAY BE SEVERAL NEW FACES IN THE CABINET

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—Conjecture as to President Roosevelt's new cabinet is already being indulged in, but while the echoes of the great battle of ballots are still ringing, the discussion is of no serious character. It is not believed that any changes will be made in the official household of the President until after the new term is entered upon. There is one thing absolutely assured, however, President Roosevelt during the next four years will surround himself with men who he feels are in entire sympathy with him. Political exigencies and state boundaries will not enter into the selection of the new cabinet. It was fully understood when George B. Cortelyou retired from the Department of Commerce and Labor to accept the management of the campaign that he would re-enter the cabinet as Postmaster General. When R. J. Wynne was selected for that position upon the death of Mr. Payne it was the belief that Mr. Cortelyou might take his place in January, but the campaign has been an arduous one and, inasmuch as the national chairman has not had a vacation for several years, it is thought that he will take a much needed rest until March 4. A European trip is now being considered.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, a warm personal friend of the President, has had cabinet aspirations. It was generally believed that in the event of the President's election the Senator would be given the portfolio of state. The ante-election announcement of Mr. Hay that he had agreed to remain in the cabinet as Secretary of State precludes the probability of the Massachusetts Senator leaving the upper body of Congress. Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock, it is understood, desires to return to private life.

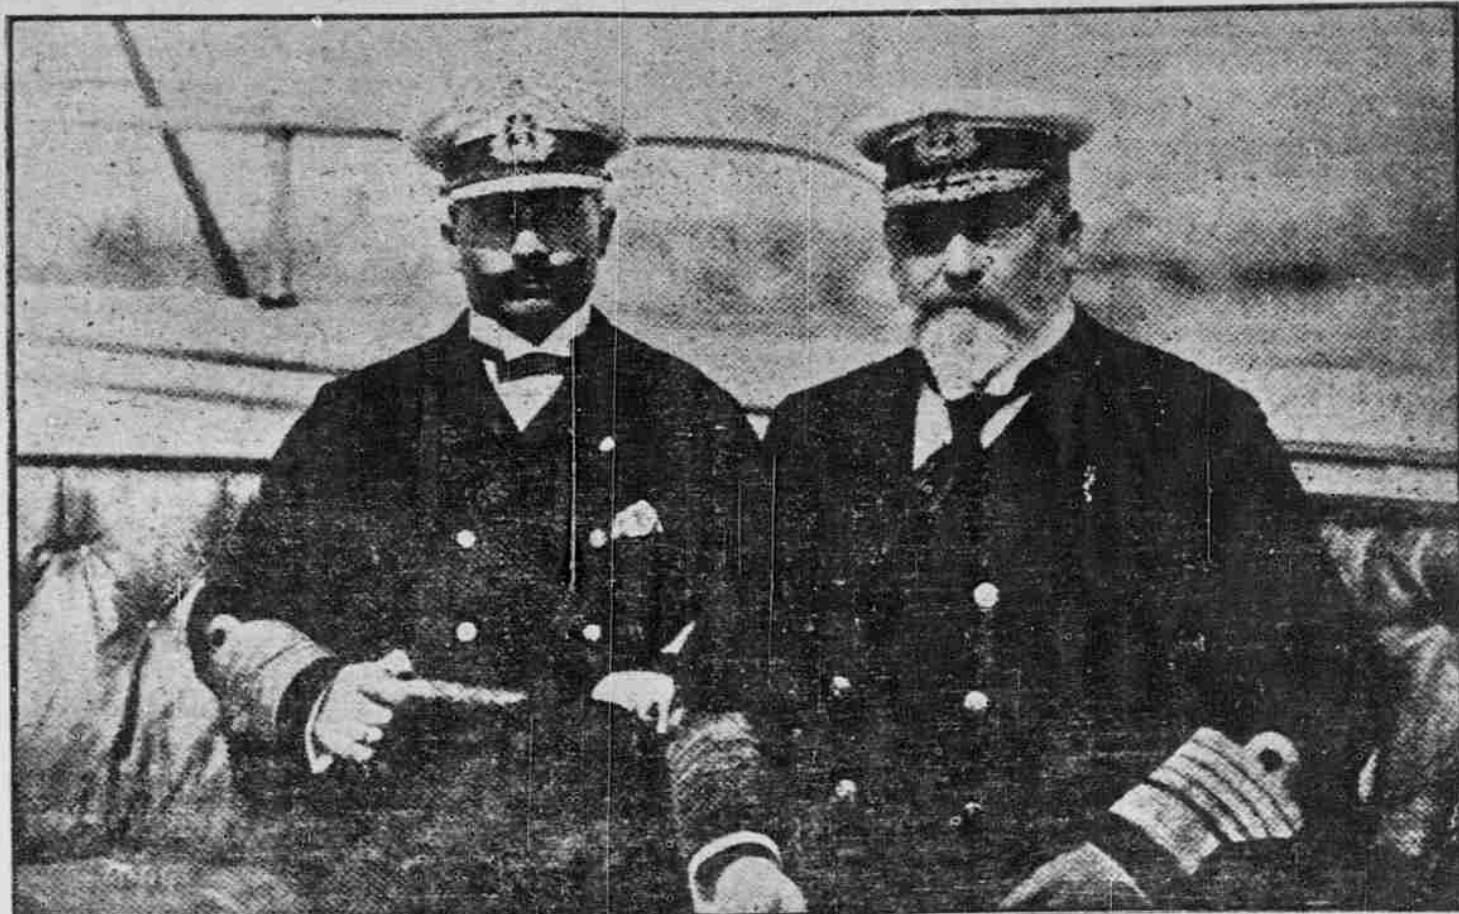

The name of a probable successor has not been mentioned. Secretary Shaw of the treasury and Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture will, beyond doubt, terminate their services at the conclusion of the present administration. Mr. Moody, Attorney-General, is desirous of resuming the practice of law. It may be, however, that he might be prevailed upon to remain a few months during the new term.

Mr. Taft, Secretary of War, is delighted with his duty. The Philippine question and the differences between the government and that of the new republic of Panama makes his presence in the official household almost indispensable.

Victor Metcalf, the new Secretary of Commerce and Labor, it is believed, will remain.

James R. Garfield, at the head of the Bureau of Corporations of the department, it is said will have a seat around the cabinet table, but exactly in what capacity is not known.

Secretary Morton, of the navy, is pleased with official life. Whether he will desire to remain cannot at this time be foretold. He can have the navy portfolio in the new cabinet if he desires it.
